MONESSEN POLICE FORCE WILL BE STRENGTHENED

Council, Last Night, Authorized Mayor Shutterly to Employ Three Additional Patrolmen—Other Important Business Transacted.

Following the recommendation of the police and lockup committee that three additional policemen be employed, council last night authorized Mayor Shutterly to at once increase the present force by the addition of three more patrolmen. The new men will be selected without delay, and will be assigned to beats on the hill districts, where, with the present force, it is next to impossible to give the residents proper protection. In connection with the report of the police and lockup committee, submitted last night, council also directed that charges of "conduct unbecoming an officer", which have been made against several of the present force, be investigated.

Messrs. Musick, Heilman, Luce and Cushing responded to roll call with President Alcorn in the chair. In the absence of Mr. McMahon, J. F. Irwin was appointed clerk. Much business of importance was transacted during the evening. A motion was carried that a warrant of $500 be drawn in favor of the Carnegie Steel Company in payment for the strip of ground condemned for the opening of River street. The full and final estimate of Contractor Fishburn for the paving of Schoonmaker avenue, from Eighth street to the borough line, was read, making a total of $12,882.55. Deducting the $5,000 already paid, a balance of $7,882.55 is left to be paid 30 days after the work is completed. It was referred to the Streets and Roads committee.

The full and final estimate due the borough from the W. M. B. V. & F. Cy. & Co., which amounted to $7,625 was referred to, as was that of the property owners which amounted to $3,- [illegible] the borough clerk was instructed to send bills to both the Street Car and to the property holders.

A communication from the People's Bank informing council of an overdraft of $3,787.49 was read and the president and borough clerk instructed to borrow $5,000 to cover the overdraft. The street commissioner was directed to have the remainder of the Sixth street steps leading down to Schoonmaker avenue. A committee of three was appointed to assist the ward assessors in valuing the triangle recently [illegible]. Messrs. Musick, Cushing and Johnson were appointed in their respective wards. The Streets and Roads committee recommended the purchase of a horse, and the building of an additional story to the rear of the borough building. It was referred to the Real Estate committee.

A petition signed by several property holders asking that the alley between McKee and Reed avenues, on Sixth street be extended was read and referred to the Streets and Roads committee.

The mayor's report for the month of October accompanied by his check for $182 in the borough's favor was read and accepted. The Light committee's report authorizing a light at Rostraver street and Knox avenue was accepted. On motion council adjourned until the next regular meeting.

Enjoyable Birthday Party.

In honor of the seventh birthday of little Mary Belle Miller, of Schoonmaker avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, the parents, gave a very pretty party yesterday afternoon from four to six.

Mary Belle, the little hostess, was assisted by her younger sister, Miss Goldie, and all of the twenty-six youngsters present spent a very enjoyable afternoon.

The children were amused by various games, a feature being the serving of a dainty lunch, consisting of ice cream, cake, candies, etc., which was highly enjoyed by all. Many useful and pretty gifts were received by the little lady, of which she is justly proud. The names of the little tots present follows:

Reah Seanor, Laura Elway, Marie Johnson, Gerald Elway, Mary Provence, Pearl Cornelius, Millie Shepler, Theo. WAS HELD FOR COURT

George Popp, Charged With Having Disposed of Diseased Hogs at Public Sale Must Answer in Court

George Popp, who yesterday furnished bail in the sum of $3,000 for his appearance at court on a charge of felonious shooting with intent to kill, preferred by his brother John and Cedar Rose, was arraigned before Squire A. N. Shuster yesterday afternoon, charged with a misdemeanor.

The allegations were that Popp disposed of a number of hogs, which he knew to be suffering from a contagious disease, at public outcry. Harry Ross brought the action. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney Wyant and the defendant by Squire Roley of Belle Vernon. Several prominent citizens of this city and Rostraver township, who had also bought hogs at the sale, appeared in behalf of the plaintiff.

Popp pleaded not guilty and the examining of witnesses began. In all about nine witnesses for the plaintiff were heard. All testified to having bought hogs at the sale and to the majority of them having died.

The testimony pointed strongly toward the hogs having been sick when purchased and Popp was held for court in the sum of $500 bail, which he furnished. The case proved quite an interesting one and the court room was crowded.

SUPERVISORS FOUND GUILTY.

Were Each Fined $10 and Costs for Neglecting to Keep the Roads in their Jurisdiction in Good Repair.

J. A. Lindsey, Daniel A. Grimes and R. W. Crothers, road supervisors of Blaine township, Washington county, were yesterday found guilty in a criminal suit that promises to have a widespread effect throughout Pennsylvania. The supervisors were charged with maintaining a nuisance in not keeping the township roads under their jurisdiction in good repair.

The suit was bitterly fought, but the jury returned a verdict of guilty. Judge J. A. Taylor fined each supervisor $10 and costs and ordered them to begin the improvements of the Blaine township roads at once or stand liable to proceedings for contempt of court.

Woman Passed Bad Checks.

Mrs. Ellen McGoogan, alias Ellen Trimbeth, alias Ellen McGuire, was arrested at Connellsville yesterday morning by Chief of Police John Detemple, upon the request of several Scottdale banking institutions, charged with passing worthless checks. The entire police force was on the woman's trail, and the Chief happened to run across her by accident on Pittsburg street. At the lockup the woman gave over $24 which she had collected in the Mill Town.

She has been passing checks signed by both John Davis and W. H. Detwiler. One check each was cashed at the First National, Broadway National and the Scottdale banks. The money was recovered in each instance. She will not be prosecuted.

TWO MONESSEN CASES IN YESTERDAY'S GRIND

Tony Lopresto Was Found Guilty on Charge of Aggravated and Felonious Assault and Battery and Fined.—Bill Against Watts Ignored

TRIAL WAS POSTPONED.

Case of Commonwealth Against Ira Virgin, Independence Constable, May be Compromised.

The case of the commonwealth against Ira Virgin, constable of Independence, who was an officer at the Belleview campmeeting last fall, which was scheduled to have come up before the criminal court Tuesday, was postponed until the February term of court with the idea of affecting a compromise before that time. The prosecution took the initiative in affecting a compromise and asked that the case be continued until the next term. Mr. Virgin is charged with felonious shooting.

It will be remembered he was employed as an officer by the campmeeting association and while performing his duties as an officer of the law, shot William Workman, of Washington. Workman has agreed to withdraw prosecution if Virgin will pay the hospital and physicians bills.

Monongahela Man Disappeared.

Friends of John Bosnick a Monongahela man are greatly exercised over his disappearance from his boarding house on last Tuesday and fear that he has been murdered for a large sum of money it is known he carried in a belt about his waist.

Early last Tuesday evening he left his boarding house to get a bucket of water at a spring nearby. He has not been seen since. He is known to have had between $400 and $500 on his person and murder is the only theory advanced for his disappearance.

Tony Lopresto, a young Italian of this place, was tried before Judge Lucien W. Doty yesterday on a charge of aggravated and felonious assault and battery. Young Lopresto shot Ludwick Smier, a 9-year-old lad who lives in Dutchtown in the shoulder several months ago. As readers of the "Daily" will remember, the shooting occurred at Wild Cat hollow.

The injured boy claimed that Lopresto shot him without provocation. The testimony showed that the shooting was accidental and resulted from the careless handling of the weapon in the hands of Lopresto. The conduct of the defendant in caring for the boy after the shooting, indicated to the court that there was no open intention to do injury to the boy. Lopresto was found guilty and fined $20 and costs.

The Grand Jury ignored the bill of larceny against Constable Watts and "Shorty" Lee, the prosecutor, was ordered to pay all costs.

Sent First Man to Work House.

By the conviction and subsequent sentencing of Wm. M. Jackson to four months in the Allegheny county work house and a fine of $500, constable Watts gained the distinction of sending the first man to the work house under the new contract.

His appointment as receiver in the C. W. Miller bankruptcy by U.S. District Court Referee Keenan was also confirmed yesterday.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism, but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend Doan's Kidney Pills Brought Strength and Health to the Sufferer, Making Him Feel Twenty-Five Years Younger.

Sick kidneys cause a weak, lame or aching back, and a weak back makes a weak man. Can't be well and strong until the kidneys are cured. Treat them with Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's the testimony of one man cured.

J. B. CORTON.

J. B. Corton, farmer and lumberman, of Deppe, N. C., says "I suffered for years with my back. It was so bad that I could not walk any distance not even ride in easy buggy. I do not believe I could have raised ten pounds of weight from the ground, the pain was so severe. This was my condition when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They quickly relieved me and now I am never troubled as I was. My back is strong and I can walk or ride a long distance and feel just as strong as I did twenty-five years ago. I think so much of Doan's Kidney Pills that I have given a supply of the remedy to some of my neighbors and they have also found good results. If you can sift anything from this rambling note that will be of any service to you, or to any one suffering from kidney trouble, you are at liberty to do so."

END OF MATEO

[Copyright 1906, by Eugene Parcells.]

There was never a more absolute monarch than King Mateo, who reigned over three of the New Guinea islands thirty years ago.

Mateo's father had made the mistake of murdering the crew of a trading vessel, and when word had been passed around the white men would trade with him no more. The son sent word far and wide that all traders should be safe with him, and in time many vessels called at his islands. He had copra and oil and other things to sell, but he wanted guns and ammunition in exchange.

He hired white men to drill his warriors and build forts for him. He even got hold of a number of cannon and had them mounted. He had the largest fleet of war canoes on the big island. If his men could have been made sailors of, the old chap could have gone into the pirate business in first class shape.

For five years King Mateo encouraged traders and whalers and got ready for a grand coup, and then he struck a blow that made his name infamous in every eastern sea. In his principal harbor were lying two English whalers and five trading vessels when he gave a grand feast. It was his wish that the crews of all the vessels be present, and only two or three men were left aboard when the feast began. By drugging the liquor and food Mateo made about a hundred men helpless, and when they had their senses again it was to find all their vessels captured and every person a prisoner. When the various craft had been robbed and stripped they were towed to sea and scuttled. By this stroke the king secured many more firearms and barrels more of powder, as well as other things to increase his wealth and arrogance.

Three months after the attack Captain Williams of an Australian trader managed to escape to sea in a canoe, but had neither food nor water. He was picked up by a vessel a hundred miles away. It was four months later before a British war vessel started from Singapore to convince King Mateo that there were other monarchs on the face of this earth. During these seven months Mateo had grown so arrogant that he defied the world. Twenty-one of the white slaves had succumbed to the climate and the hard work and scanty food.

No more traders had called in, and, being angry at this, the king had determined on a grand feast at which the last of his white prisoners should be slain for the amusement of his people. This feast would have been held two weeks before her majesty's man-of-war Revenge reached the islands had not the ruler had a spell of sickness. He had issued his royal proclamation when the armed craft came sailing into his harbor. She was an auxiliary, but was not using steam. For once the British captain resorted to a trick. He made the Revenge look as much as possible like a whaler after a long voyage, and the few men of her crew allowed on deck were rigged out any old way. She had six guns, but these were so well covered that the spies who were sent aboard did not notice them. They returned to the king to report an ordinary whaler, and he invited the crew to a feast. His invitation was refused. He thereupon ordered the craft out of his harbor. She refused to go.

The British captain had been instructed to move carefully and let Mateo take the lead in overt acts. He did not have to wait long. In broad daylight on the third day, and after sending off word of what he was going to do, Mateo attacked the Britisher with seventy war canoes, each one holding ten men. They paddled out from shore singing their war songs and indulging in many boasts. The Revenge had furled her sails and got steam up, and she steamed down to the mouth of the harbor and waited. When the first musket was fired at her, her crew leaped on deck and began to work the big guns. She was provided with round shot, shell and grape and canister, and the sea fight lasted only fifteen minutes. Fifty of the seventy canoes were destroyed and most of their crews killed.

This was the first licking King Mateo ever received, and it set him frantic. He was game, however. He was licked, but he wouldn't give up yet. He rallied his battalions and challenged the Britisher to come ashore and have it out fair and square. This was exactly what the captain of the Revenge wanted to do. He had come after those white prisoners, and he must go ashore to get them. He had a crew of 250 men, and he landed 200 of them, divided them into three bodies, and when the natives advanced, still five to one, they were bowled over by the score, flanked right and left and licked out of their boots in half an hour.

King Mateo's reign was at an end forever. Of the white prisoners only about thirty were left. Of the natives 600 had been killed and as many as 300 wounded. Two trading vessels came in on the day of the battle. They were allowed to load with the plunder. Several villages were burned, many cocoanut groves destroyed and the king and eleven of his principal men taken aboard the Revenge. A new king was installed on the throne and bidden to mind his p's and q's, and then the Britisher sailed away.

The prisoners were landed at Singapore and kept in jail for a year or so and when turned loose became dock loafers. Mateo is still pointed out to a tourist, and the first thing he does after being called up is to beg for a drink; the second is to announce that the British are a great and wonderful race.

The Endless Procession.

A myriad of men are born. They labor and sweat and struggle for bread; they squabble and scold and fight; they scramble for little mean advantages over each other; age creeps upon them; infirmities follow; shames and humiliations bring down their prides and their vanities; those they love are taken from them, and the joy of life is turned to aching grief. The burden of pain, care, misery, grows heavier year by year; at length ambition is dead, pride is dead; vanity is dead; longing for release is in their place. It comes at last—the only unpoisoned gift earth ever had for them—and they vanish from a world where they were of no consequence; where they achieved nothing; where they were a mistake and a failure and a foolishness. There they have left no sign that they have existed—a world which will lament them a day and forget them forever. Then another myriad takes their place, and copies all they did, and goes along the same profitless road, and vanishes as they vanished—to make room for another, and another, and a million other myriads, to follow the same arid path through the same desert and accomplish what the first myriad and all the myriads that came after it accomplished—nothing.—From Mark Twain's Autobiography in North American Review.

Stuttering Women Scarce.

"Women who stutter are very scarce," remarked a physician. "I think it is safe to say that the average person passes through life without ever meeting a stuttering woman. There are two reasons for this. First, woman naturally—I don't know why—is less liable to the disease of stammering than man. Second, if she develops this disease she sets out with the determination to cure herself, and she succeeds. Whereas careless man, rather than take the trouble of a cure, will go stammering on to the end."

Could Take His Choice.

At a recent inquest in a Pennsylvania town one of the jurors, after the usual swearing in, arose and with much dignity protested against service, alleging that he was the general manager of an important concern and was wasting valuable time by sitting as a juror at an inquest. The coroner, turning to his clerk, said: "Mr. Morgan, kindly hand me 'Jervis' (the authority on juries)." Then, after consulting the book, the coroner observed to the unwilling juror:

"Upon reference to 'Jervis,' I find, sir, that no persons are exempt from service as jurors except idiots, imbeciles and lunatics. Now, under which heading do you claim exemption?"—Success Magazine.

Walnuts In France.

In some parts of France walnuts form a regular article of diet. The peasants eat them with bread that has oftentimes been rubbed with garlic. The hygienic effects are considered good, replacing meat to a large extent. These nuts are also used to make oil. It is much cheaper and similar in taste to that pressed from olives and is employed to adulterate the latter. The prisoners in certain prisons are engaged in breaking walnuts and picking out the kernels, which are pressed into oil.

The World's Debt to Flowers.

I have met or known men or women who have not a cultured character, becoming devotees to the culture of flowers, and I venture to say that the world [illegible] owes much to the doctrine of obligation to pansies, violets, roses and lilies, to have left a few of the footprints silently help the good angel of mankind.—Christian World

Exercising Dogs.

Never take your dog out for a run directly after he has had a meal. If the exercise is at all hard the food will remain undigested for hours. It is best not to allow a dog to play even directly after he has swallowed his dinner. In a little time he can do so, but do not encourage him to romp about.

Got Him Mixed.

Miss Backbay—What I like about Henry James is the clarity of his style, his reserve force and his absolute mastery in the field of epigram and antithesis.

Mr. Cahokia—Yes, but when it comes to the fast ball, you know, I think Walsh has got him skinned to death.—Chicago Tribune.

Knew the Measure.

"When you get your groceries today," said the butcher to his wife, "don't go to that little grocer next door to my shop."

"Why not?" she demanded.

"Because he sent in yesterday and borrowed an old pair of scales."

Falls Heir to Small Fortune

C. H. McCarthy, of Conroy's barber shop, has just learned that a small fortune left by a late aunt is deposited in a Pittsburg bank awaiting the claimant. The aunt in question died about a year ago, leaving considerable property, which was disposed of according to the wishes set forth in her will. With the exception of $1,500 given to the St. Mary's Catholic church of Pittsburg, no mention was made in the will of what disposition was to be made of her money. Accidentally Mr McCarthy yesterday learned that in one bank alone $40,000 was on deposit and there may be more in other banks. He will go to Pittsburg Monday and make a thorough investigation. Mr. McCarthy and three brothers are the only direct relatives living and each will inherit a tidy fortune from the amount.

AT THE THEATRE

The only dramatic century plant from which flowers are always being picked, if one may pardon the anachronism, is "Uncle Tom's Cabin". Things may come and things may go, but this moving tale of slavery days, goes down the corridors of time forever.

It seems hardly possible that anybody may not have seen "Uncle Tom's Cabin," yet packed houses greets the famous Stetson Company wherever it appears and countless thousands laugh, cry and applaud as though it were a new dramatic offering. Such is the tenacious hold that drama has on the affections of theatre goers when properly presented Poor versions of this play, and poor "Uncle Tom's Cabin" companies have for years dotted the sea of drama like so many active marine carryalls Most of them are long since strewn along the shores of time, like so many derelicts

The Stetson Company bears the reputation of a rara-avis among the productions of this drama and wins the very highest commendation. It is said to dwarf all other productions of this play, as the Himalayas dwarf a mole-hill. In Manger Washburn's production it is almost a new play, so modern and up-to-date are the various accessories to its successful presentation.

The Play is presented by an excellent company, perfectly adapted to the demands made upon each, and the five (5) acts are said to move as smoothly and impressive as a motor pacer.

The scenic effects are pronounced remarkably fine, while the necessary mechanical adjuncts will be found all that can be desired in order to make it good enough to be called stupendous.

The "Uncle Tom's Cabin" production is worth seeing and will prove a delight to young and old, to those who have seen it and to those who have not.

Stetson's is a remarkable revial of a reliable classic. The house is sure to be filled on Saturday Nov., 17. at the Monessen Opera House by those who wish to refresh their memories as well as those who delight in a fine dramatic offering.

Between the acts, special high-class vaudeville acts will be introduced. The parade is said to be the grandest ever given by any theatrical company anywhere

Further Warning for Constables.

A further warning was given to the constablee, of the necessity of looking, carefully after the duties of their office in criminal court yesterday, when Constable McCarthy, of Belmont, was required, under an order of court, to pay the costs of an attachment, he having failed to subpoena the witnesses asked for, under the attachment.
